PRECEDENCE

The following is quoted from the Naval Reserve Act of 1938:

"SEC. 1. * * * Provided that all men who on the date of this act are members of the Fleet Naval Reserve as a result of sixteen or more years of active naval service, are hereby transferred to the Fleet Reserve created by this act, * * * and all other members of the Fleet Naval Reserve are hereby transferred to the Organized Reserve; and all officers and men who on the date of this act are members of the * * * Volunteer Naval Reserve (including aviation cadets), are hereby transferred to the * * * Volunteer Naval Reserve (including aviation cadets), are hereby transferred to the * * * Volunteer Reserve, * * *."

"SEC. 2. The United States Marine Corps Reserve established under the act of February 28, 1925, is hereby abolished, and in lieu thereof there is hereby created and established as a component part of the United States Marine Corps, a Marine Corps Reserve under the same provisions in all respects (except as may be necessary to adapt said provisions to the Marine Corps) as those contained in this act or which may hereafter be enacted providing for the Naval Reserve: Provided, That the Marine Corps Reserve shall consist of the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve, the Organized Marine Corps Reserve, and the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve, * * *."

"SEC. 311. In time of peace, officers of the Naval Reserve shall take precedence according to such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: Provided, That when mobilized with the Regular Navy for war or a national emergency, each officer of the Naval Reserve shall take precedence next after that officer of the Regular Navy of the same rank or grade whose length of service in such rank or grade on the date of such mobilization is one-half or the nearest one-half of that of the Reserve officer."
